

NAWIC SCHOLARSHIP REQUIREMENTS

Application Deadline: MUST BE POSTMARKED BY MARCH 1, 2008.

ELIGIBILITY:

Applications are open to both men and women. Applicant must be a full-time student, who, as of September, 2008, is enrolled as a degree candidate in a construction-related, construction management, architecture, civil, mechanical, structural, or electrical engineering, and/or a fully accredited technical or apprentice program.

REQUIREMENTS:

- * *All applications MUST be submitted in completed form, typed or printed in black ink.
- * *All applications MUST be accompanied by an official transcript from the school where the applicant is currently enrolled. College freshmen must also include a high school transcript.
- * *All applications MUST include the enclosed recommendation form (page 7) in a sealed envelope, with the signature of person writing the recommendation across the seal.

AWARD:

Applications will be reviewed and winner(s) selected by the Scholarship Committee of NAWIC Boston Chapter #15. Winners are chosen on the applicant's interest in construction, grades, extracurricular activities, recommendations, and financial need.

Scholarships are not automatically renewed, but recipients are encouraged to reapply.

Awards will be announced by June 1, 2007, and winners will be notified by mail.

Checks made out to the winner and the institution will be given directly to the winners upon presentation of acceptance and/or matriculation for the 2008/2009 school term, and any other information designated by the NAWIC Boston Chapter #15 Scholarship Committee.

The NAWIC Boston Chapter #15 Scholarship Program is an equal opportunity program, and encourages applications from all individuals.
